

Bible Study Analysis

To be completed before second year staff training. Bring with you to training.

1. What was your greatest problem with Bible studies this year? What was the root cause of this problem?

2. What was your second greatest problem with Bible studies this year? What was its root cause?

3. Did students discuss freely in your studies, or did you find yourself lecturing?

4. What were the reasons for good discussion or lack thereof?

5. Did you ask good questions? Did you write them out?

6. To what extent did your questions provoke discussion among the group members?

7. How much trouble did you have letting go of accuracy?

8. What helped or hindered you in letting go of accuracy?

9. To what extent did your application cut to the heart?
10. Cite two examples of pointed applications in your Bible studies this year.
11. How well did you keep the study focused on the main point of the passage?
12. What factors affected your focus on the main point?
13. To what extent did you see students transformed by your Bible studies?
14. Cite two cases of significant change in students in your Bible studies.
15. Which types of literature did you study (narrative, discourse, poetry)?
16. Which was hardest? Easiest?