

Bible Study Evaluation

- 2 -

Overview
How well did the leader...	Well	Good	Ave.	Poor	Fail
understand the passage himself?
understand the people in the group?
exercise leadership?
provoke conversation within the group?
lead the group into heart application?

Discussion Questions
How well did the leader...	Well	Good	Ave.	Poor	Fail
balance O, I, and A?
ask clear questions?
avoid binary and simplistic questions?
ask questions that sounded natural?
organize the material?
press for thorough understanding, without losing people?
focus the discussion on the main point of the passage?
lead application to student-specific, heart issues?

Group Interaction
How well did the leader...	Well	Good	Ave.	Poor	Fail
begin and end on time?
pace the study?
deal with tangents?
listen to the group members?
affirm all contributions?
involve everyone in the group?
respond to problems?
encourage prayer before and after the study?
create a stimulating but comforting environment?
create a hunger for God's word?

Summary

Did the leader write out his questions?

Did he answer his own questions?

What is his greatest strength?

What is his greatest growth area?

Bible Study Evaluation

- 2 -

Overview
How well did the leader...	Well	Good	Ave.	Poor	Fail
understand the passage himself?
understand the people in the group?
exercise leadership?
provoke conversation within the group?
lead the group into heart application?

Discussion Questions
How well did the leader...	Well	Good	Ave.	Poor	Fail
balance O, I, and A?
ask clear questions?
avoid binary and simplistic questions?
ask questions that sounded natural?
organize the material?
press for thorough understanding, without losing people?
focus the discussion on the main point of the passage?
lead application to student-specific, heart issues?

Group Interaction
How well did the leader...	Well	Good	Ave.	Poor	Fail
begin and end on time?
pace the study?
deal with tangents?
listen to the group members?
affirm all contributions?
involve everyone in the group?
respond to problems?
encourage prayer before and after the study?
create a stimulating but comforting environment?
create a hunger for God's word?

Summary

Did the leader write out his questions?

Did he answer his own questions?

What is his greatest strength?

What is his greatest growth area?